

Final Exam, May 2010
Literature, Anglais Sem 4, M. Engle
Pride and Prejudice

Read this carefully before beginning :

- Please write your essay neatly on the sheets provided.
- It is important to remain silent and to stop work immediately upon the announcement of the end of this exam period.
- No documents authorized.
- Reminder : those students writing on the topic below will do their oral commentaire with Mlle Sibley, and vice versa.

Dissertation : Please write a coherent and elegant essay treating the topic below. Where you think appropriate, you may also discuss the Joe Wright adaptation. The quality of your written English will naturally be taken into consideration in your grade:

Perception and Pride and Prejudice

Final Exam, May 2010
Literature, Anglais Sem 4, M. Engle
Pride and Prejudice

Read this carefully before beginning :

- Please write your essay neatly on the sheets provided.
- It is important to remain silent and to stop work immediately upon the announcement of the end of this exam period.
- No documents authorized.
- Reminder : those students writing on the topic below will do their oral commentaire with Mlle Sibley, and vice versa.

Dissertation : Please write a coherent and elegant essay treating the topic below. Where you think appropriate, you may also discuss the Joe Wright adaptation. The quality of your written English will naturally be taken into consideration in your grade:

Perception and Pride and Prejudice

Université du Sud, Toulon-Var
Faculté des Lettres et Sciences Humaines

LCE Anglais Semestre 4
Littérature : Dissertation
Cours de Mme Sibley
Examen de la première session, mai 2010
Durée : 3 heures
Documents autorisés : aucun

Please write a well-structured essay on the following topic :

The character of Macbeth: villain, victim or tragic hero?

Remember to pay attention to the quality of your written English.